For current information, call 570-724-4876 and listen to the phone message or visit the library's website or Facebook page. Based on the reopening guidelines provided by the Office of Commonwealth Libraries, the public is allowed into the library building by appointment only to use a computer and to pick up holds, including books, audiobooks and DVDs reserved by an individual. Staff can also make copies and send faxes for patrons. Just call 570-724-4876 to schedule a time. The library continues to provide curbside service for pick up of holds and asks patrons to continue to return all library materials to the book drop. Staff members wear masks and have their temperatures taken daily in the interest of patrons' health and safety. Patrons are asked to reciprocate by wearing masks when they are in the building and allowing staff to take their temperature. To request that books, audiobooks and DVDs be held and to schedule a time to pick them up inside the building or at curbside, patrons are asked to email the library at GFLibrary15w@gmail.com or call 570-724-4876. Patrons can also place holds through My Account at <https://greenfree.sparkpa.org/eg/opac/home>. Check the Spark catalog for carousels that display the library's newest DVD and adult book titles that can be put on hold for pick up at a prearranged time. All returned materials are still being quarantined for seven days before being returned to library shelves or loaned out.

BROWSE INSIDE THE LIBRARY

Patrons interested in browsing for books inside the library are asked to call 570-724-4876 to arrange the date and time of their visit.

STORY TIME IS ON YOUTUBE CHANNEL

The Green Free Library has a YouTube channel for Story Time that is updated each Wednesday and can be accessed whenever parents and children want to watch. Search for "Green Free Library Story Time" on YouTube to be taken to stories and craft ideas for young children shared by Miss Mia and available anytime. Also, patrons can find the link to Story Time on the library's website at greenfreelibrary.org under “Upcoming Events” and on its Facebook page.

RIDDLE ME THIS IS MARCH 10, 17 & 24

The library is celebrating Dr. Seuss in March. Miss Mia will be sharing a different riddle at the end of each Wednesday’s story time video on March 10, 17 and 24. Children who think they have solved that week’s riddle must submit their answer no later than 2pm on the Sunday following the Wednesday the video is aired to be entered for a chance to win the weekly prize drawing. A winner will be chosen each week. Individuals may only win once. Choose one of these three ways to enter: 1) Write your name and answer on paper, put it in an envelope and put the envelope in the book drop on the porch of the Green Free Library; 2) Call the library at 570-724-4876 with your name and answer; or 3) Email your answer to gflibrary15w@gmail.com. Those who are not a library patron are asked to also submit a contact phone number with their entry. Each prize winner must make arrangements to pick up his or her prize at the Green Free Library. No prizes will be mailed.

FRIENDS BOOK CART IS ON LIBRARY’S PORCH

HG IS PRESENTING SHORT PLAYS VIA ZOOM EVERY WEEKEND NOW THROUGH APRIL 10 & 11; THREE THURBER COMEDIES ARE MARCH 6 & 7

Hamilton-Gibson Productions is presenting staged readings of 30-minute plays or groups of short plays running about 30 minutes on Saturdays at 7:30 p.m. and Sundays at 2:30 p.m. for eight consecutive weekends now through April 10 & 11. The series is free. There will be a talk-back after each performance so the audience can discuss what they have just seen and heard with Director Thomas Putnam and cast members. This Saturday, March 6 at 7:30 p.m. and this Sunday, March 7 at 2:30 p.m., husband and wife Larry and Barbara Biddison of Wellsboro portray married couples in three different James Thurber 10-minute comedies via Zoom. Each one tickles the funny bone as it pokes fun at marriage and the never-ending "battle of the sexes." Written by James Thurber (1894-1961) and adapted for dramatic reading by HG's Larry Biddison, the three comedies are: "A Couple of Hamburgers" (1935), "Mr. Monroe Outwits a Bat" (1929), and "Mr. Preble Gets Rid of His Wife" (1933). For Zoom information to access the performances, go to the HG website at <https://www.hamiltongibson.org> or HG Facebook page or call the HG office at 570-724-2079 or email hamgib@gmail.com. Those familiar with Zoom can go to the Zoom website at <https://zoom.us>, click on "joint meeting" and enter 839 2536 6867 - the access code for Saturday performance and then enter the passcode 902173. For Sunday performances, enter the access code 873 9936 8164 and the passcode 420146. Donations are appreciated. Help HG by going to the website (www.hamiltongibson.org) and donating there, or sending a contribution to HG, 29 Water Street, Wellsboro, PA 16901. Please include "Staged Readings" in the check memo line.
