THE MCKRELLS FREE CONCERT IS THIS SATURDAY, MAY 1 OUTDOORS

At 3pm this Saturday, May 1, the McKrells featuring singer/songwriter Kevin McKrell, will play and sing Celtic folk and Celtic bluegrass music on the outdoor stage on the Central Avenue side of the Deane Center at 104 Main Street in Wellsboro. This concert is free and open to the public. Donations are appreciated. Audiences warm up to McKrell right away. He has a devilish sense of humor, loves to tell stories about the songs he plays and invites the audience to sing along. His works have been recorded and performed by artists around the world. One of his best-known songs, "All of the Hard Days are Gone" has been recorded by the Kingston Trio, Hair of the Dog and Wood's Tea Company. He was a founding member of Donnybrook Fair, a Celtic folk band, and the McKrells, the first Celtic bluegrass band. Joining McKrell on stage will be percussionist Brian Melick, singer Frank Orsini on violin, viola and mandolin, Scott Hopkins on banjo, and Arlin Greene on bass. Those attending are encouraged to bring lawn chairs and/or blankets and sit on the grass in front of the outdoor stage or on Central Avenue, which will be closed to traffic between Main Street and the Warehouse Theatre to provide space for social distancing. For more information, visit deanecenter.com, email office@deanecenter.com, or call 570-724-6220.

VELVEETA INDOOR CONCERT IS ON MAY 8

At 7:30pm on Saturday, May 8, Velveeta, Penn State's premier party band, will perform a variety of 1980s and 1990s pop and rock tunes and a mix of today's music by well-known artists in the Coolidge Theatre at the Deane Center at 104 Main Street in Wellsboro. "What I Like About You," "I Love Rock 'n' Roll," and "I'm a Believer" are just a sampling of the hits in Velveeta's repertoire. Band members are: Brian Kriley, vocalist and lead guitarist; John Matthews, vocalist and bass guitarist; John "Bones" Harper, vocalist and drummer; and Brent Martin, vocalist, keyboardist and rhythm guitarist. Almost 26 years ago in July of 1995, the foursome started playing their original music as a grunge-inspired band called Broken. Then they decided to give it a go as a cover band called Velveeta, playing classic hits from the 1980s like "Come On Eileen" and "Jessie's Girl." "Things exploded for us," said Matthews. Within months, most of the band members were able to quit their day jobs. Today, Velveeta's unique live music experience remains an audience favorite. "We just want it to be fun,"

Matthews said. Tickets are $25 and are limited. For more information, contact the Deane Center at 570-724-6220 or www.deanecenter.com.

“THE LAST ROMANCE” IS FIRST IN PERSON MAIN STAGE PRODUCTION

Performances of Hamilton-Gibson's production of "The Last Romance" are at 7:30pm on Fridays and Saturdays, May 7 & 8 and 14 & 15 and 2:30pm on Sundays, May 9 & 16 in the Warehouse Theatre in Wellsboro. Acclaimed American playwright Joe DiPietro wrote this heart-warming comedy about the transformative power of love. It is Hamilton-Gibson's first live theatre production in Wellsboro since October 2020. A crush can make anyone feel young again - even a widower named Ralph. On an ordinary day in a routine life, Ralph decides to take a different path on his daily walk - one that leads him to an unexpected second chance at love. Relying on a renewed boyish charm, Ralph attempts to woo the elegant, but distant, Carol. Defying Carol's reticence - and his lonely sister's jealousy - Ralph embarks on the trip of a lifetime, and regains a happiness that seemed all but lost. Gary Fizzano of Morris plays Ralph Bellini, the lead character. Anne Acker of Wellsboro is Rose Tagliatelle, Ralph's sister with whom he lives. Kathryn Sheneman of Roseville is Carol Reynolds, Ralph's love interest. John Tobey Jr., a student at Mansfield University, plays the Young Man, a tenor who sings verses from arias but has no spoken lines. Tickets are by reservation only and have to be ordered in advance and prepaid online at hgp.booktix.com or by calling the HG office at 570-724-2079 with credit card information. "Prepaid reservations allow us to assign and group seats to meet social distancing protocols and state guidelines," said Director Thomas Putnam. "That's why no tickets will be sold at the door." Ticket prices are $14 for adults and $6 for youth, 18 and under. Also available are FlexPasses for $60. For more information, to purchase a flex pass or to reserve and prepay, call 570-724-2079 or email info@hamiltongibson.org.
