

Pennsylvania Green Phase Listing of Wellsboro Area Chamber of Commerce Business & Organization Members

To All Chamber Member Businesses and Organizations—

Today, Friday, July 10, you and all other chamber members are receiving the COVID-19 Business and Organization Green Phase Reopening Listing by email. This listing will also be posted on the chamber's Facebook page and website.

In line with Governor Tom Wolf's Green Phase of Pennsylvania's three-phase reopening plan for businesses and organizations, Wellsboro Area Chamber of Commerce members have reopened to customers by following state recommended protocols or are in the process of reopening.

PLEASE NOTE: The next Green Phase listing will be emailed to all chamber members on Friday, July 17. To change information or add a new listing, email Sharon Hazelton at sharonh@wellsboropa.com by 4pm Wednesday, July 15.

Below is the alphabetical listing of 93 chamber member businesses and organizations by name. Of the 93 listings, 24 are updated and 69 remain the same.

The special video tribute to essential workers includes 13 members of the EMMF Festival Symphony Orchestra's brass and percussion sections playing American composer Aaron Copland's three-minute "Fanfare for the Common Man." Among the EMMF guest artist concerts are "teasers" by eight emerging Hollywood composers during which each one talks about composing and plays a portion of his or her original composition representing a decade of music from the 1940s through 2010-2020. Their works will premiere during EMMF's 2021 season. The virtual series also features concerts by Bram Wijnands performing stride piano jazz pieces; Sheng Cai playing Beethoven and Rachmaninoff at the piano; Fire in the Glen giving a porch concert of Celtic music; and Peggy Dettwiler, Mansfield University's Choral Activities director, sharing music from the university's choral program from 2016 to 2020 "to generate enthusiasm for the day when we shall sing together again," she said. Other EMMF guest musicians showcased in the virtual series are: singer-songwriter Abbie Gardner, a talented Dobro and slide guitarist performing her original folk songs; Grammy-winner Doris Hall-Gulati on clarinet; Jessica Wilbee on harp; violinists Hua Jin, Sirena Huang and Siwoo Kim; and vocalists Catherine and Todd Ranney. "The EMMF live festival will be back and better than ever in 2021 featuring these incredible guest artists," said Executive Director Cindy Long. "In the meantime, we hope people enjoy their virtual performances." Use <https://vimeo.com/showcase/emmf2020> to access the 2020 Virtual Endless Mountain Music Festival concerts and tribute. The link is available on the Endless Mountain Music Festival's website at www.endlessmountain.net, Facebook at Endless Mountain Music Festival, at Instagram@endlessmountainmusicfestival, and at Twitter@EMMusicfestival.
