Hamilton-Gibson's 15th Annual Shaw Festival Day Trip

Saturday, May 11th, 2019

What would you give up for love? Stumbling upon a magical village that appears out of the Scottish mist for one day every century, Tommy, a modern boy, meets Fiona, a girl from the past. Should he stay with her in Brigadoon, or return to the world he knows and never see her again? This feast of song and dance from Lerner and Loewe (the team behind My Fair Lady) has been entrancing audiences for more than seven decades. Classic songs like "Almost like being in love" and "I'll go home with Bonnie Jean" will stay with you forever.

Participants in Hamilton-Gibson's 15th annual one day theater trip to Niagara-on-the-Lake will get to see this lively musical in the Shaw Festival's flagship 856-seat Festival Theatre.

The trip to the Shaw Festival is part of Hamilton-Gibson's ongoing educational and cultural outreach mission. It's not too soon to reserve your seat on the bus to see this stunning professional theatrical production. Transportation for this outing will be provided by Benedict's Bus Service, departing from the terminal in Whitneyville, with additional pickups in Mansfield, and Painted Post (see itinerary) and returning before 9:30pm.

Spending a Saturday afternoon with Hamilton-Gibson in the "loveliest town in Ontario" truly is an event that inspires you to "think spring." Situated at the mouth of the Niagara River, the town is known for its floral parks and walkways, period homes, and fine shops and restaurants.

By taking advantage of group rates, we are able to keep the cost reasonably low (less than half the cost of a single ticket alone.) The cost of this year's trip is a bargain at $130 per person. Free hearing devices are available. Meals are not included. All participants must carry valid passports.

The Shaw Festival day trip is open to adults and to children accompanied by adults—everyone with valid passports. Space is limited to 40 persons. Full payment guarantees your reservation.
